Practical Tips:

- Being praying now for godly mates for your children.
- Start teaching your children the sanctity and value of their bodies as created by and belonging to God.
- Be careful to be modest in dress and behavior before your children, without being afraid to show affection to your spouse in their presence.
- Talk with your children about the value of waiting until marriage for sex—the joy of marital fulfillment.
- Train your older children to be emotionally and spiritually prepared to handle relationships with the opposite sex.
- Never treat sex as a dirty or embarrassing subject.
- Promise that you will answer honestly any questions your children have about sex.
- Challenge your teens to take a vow of purity until marriage. Consider giving them a ring.
